CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play that every candidate and political committee in this state has a moral obligation to observe and uphold, in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional rights to a free and untrammelled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

- (1) I will conduct the campaign openly and publicly and limit attacks on my opponent to legitimate challenges to my opponent's record and stated positions on issues.
- (2) I will not use or permit the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or the candidate's personal or family life.
- (3) I will not use or permit any appeal to negative prejudice based on race, sex, religion, or national origin.
- (4) I will not use campaign material of any sort that misrepresents, distorts, or otherwise falsifies the facts, nor will I use malicious or unfounded accusations that aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification, as to the personal integrity or patriotism of my opponent.
- (5) I will not undertake or condone any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our system of free elections or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (6) I will defend and uphold the right of every qualified voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process, and will not engage in any activity aimed at intimidating voters or discouraging them from voting.
- (7) I will immediately and publicly repudiate methods and tactics that may come from others that I have pledged not to use or condone. I shall take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of Texas or campaign treasurer of a political committee, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct the campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.

MARTINA LEMON DIXON, Trustee Position 5 - Bio

Martina Lemond Dixon is a native Houstonian, and has lived in Kingwood for 18 years. She is married to Scott Dixon, and they have four children, Cassidy, a sophomore at Howard University in DC, and a graduate of Humble High School's IB Program, Alec, an 11th grader at Humble High School, and Sydney and Ian both attend Creekwood Middle School in grades 8 and 6, respectively. Dixon has her BA in Communications from Auburn University, her Post Baccalaureate in Construction Management in Engineering from LSU, and she received her Texas teacher certification at the University of St. Thomas.

Currently, Martina serves on the Humble ISD Education Foundation Board of Directors, as the Treasurer, Finance Committee Chair, and on the Grant Review Committee. She is also a member of the district's Dream Team Education Task Force, which is a group collectively sharing ideas on a community-wide vision and mission for the future of our district.

When it comes to serving the district, Martina has worn many hats. She has served on the executive board for the Humble ISD Council of PTA's 2013-14, as a delegate for the Humble ISD Council of PTA's 2010-2014, the PTA Council Scholarship Chair 2012-14, Greentree Elementary PTA Board as the Legislative Chair 2010-2014, she headed the planning committee to reinstate the PTSA in 2012-13, and then became the Humble High School PTSA President 2013-2014, a greeter at Creekwood Middle School 2011-13, Grant Prize Posse, attended Rally Day in Austin twice to discuss education issues with our State Senators and State Representatives on behalf of the Humble ISD Council of PTA's, and much more.

For four years, the Dixon family lived abroad in Abu Dhabi, UAE, while maintaining their residence in Kingwood. During this time, Martina was elected to the Board of Trustees at the American Community School of Abu Dhabi, which is affiliated with the U.S. State Department. While on the school board, Martina served as board secretary, curriculum chair, and communications chair. For school board leadership training, Martina attended NESA Leadership Conferences in with the U.S. Office of Overseas Schools in Amman, Jordan, and in Athens, Greece.

From 2008-12, Martina served on the Board of Directors for Cherish Our Children International, COCI, based in Houston. She served on this 17-member board, which is an international charity that develops and funds programs and projects that provide a brighter future for the world's most vulnerable children. COCI has programs in the United States, Serbia, Ethiopia, and Mexico.

Martina has 10 years teaching experience, eight of which were at North Shore High School in Galena Park ISD, where she attended high school. During her tenure at NSHS she was the newspaper and yearbook advisor, she served on the site-based decision making committee, and she twice received the highly coveted Diamond Award, where students in the Top 5% in the district select one teacher who made the greatest impact on their lives from K-12th grades.

In the community, Martina is a member of the Humble-Kingwood Chapter of Jack and Jill of America, she is a member of the Kings Trail Chapter of NCL, she was the Lake Houston Area Chamber of Commerce Leadership Class President in 2013-14, and she is member of the Association for Learning Environments.

The Dixon family are members of St. Martha Catholic Church in Kingwood, and Lakewood Church in Houston.
